

An e-learning initiative by

- Course Title: Seminar on Natural Justice and Administration in Arbitration Law
- Speakers: Dr. Jack Tsen - Ta Lee - Assistant Professor of Law, School of Law, Singapore Management University
Alvin Yeo, SC - Chairman & Senior Partner, WongPartnership LLP
- Duration: 50 minutes
- Course description: Bias is one of the grounds of judicial review in Singapore administrative law which a person can rely upon to challenge the judgment of a court or tribunal, or a public authority's action or decision. There are three forms of bias, namely, actual, imputed and apparent bias.
- The speakers will focus on the following topics –
- 1) Actual and Apparent Bias
To understand the doctrine of bias in administrative law; and how bias in arbitration law and practice may differ from administrative law
 - 2) Fair Hearing
To understand principles of fair hearing in arbitration law and practice; and how fair hearing in administrative law may differ from arbitration law and practice

About the speakers:

Dr. Jack Tsen-Ta Lee - Assistant Professor of Law, School of Law, Singapore Management University (Singapore)

Dr Jack Tsen-Ta Lee is an assistant professor of law at the School of Law, Singapore Management University (SMU). He graduated from the National University of Singapore with an LLB (Hons) in 1995, and was called to the Bar as an advocate and solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore the following year. After practising for about six years as a litigator, during which time he qualified as a solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales, he completed an LLM at University College London in 2003 on a British Chevening Scholarship. In 2012, he was conferred a PhD for research into the interpretation of bills of rights by the University of Birmingham, which was funded by a teaching assistantship from the University. He joined SMU in 2008 where he teaches and researches constitutional and administrative law, and media law, while maintaining an interest in the law of cultural property and heritage. He was a 2009 Lee Foundation Fellow for Research Excellence, and won the School of Law's Most Promising Teacher Award for 2010–2011.

POWERED BY

LEARNED PROFESSIONALS
EST. 2013 - SINGAPORE
Learning anytime, any place.

An e-learning initiative by

Alvin Yeo, SC - Chairman & Senior Partner, WongPartnership LLP

Alvin YEO, Senior Counsel, is the Chairman & Senior Partner of WongPartnership LLP. His main practice is as counsel in corporate, commercial and infrastructure disputes, both in litigation and international commercial / investment arbitration. He also acted as arbitrator in various disputes under ICC, UNCITRAL, HKIAC and SIAC Rules, involving projects in various parts of Asia.

He is a member of the Court of the SIAC and the ICC Commission on Arbitration. He is also the Vice-President of the LCIA Asia Pacific Users' Council, a Fellow of the SI Arb and on the panel of arbitrators of ICDR, HKIAC, KCAB, KLRCA and SCIA. Alvin is also recognised as a leading litigation and arbitration counsel in international legal directories such as The Legal 500: Asia Pacific; IFLR1000; Chambers Global and Chambers Asia Pacific.

POWERED BY

LEARNED PROFESSIONALS

EST. 2013 - SINGAPORE

Learning anytime, any place.